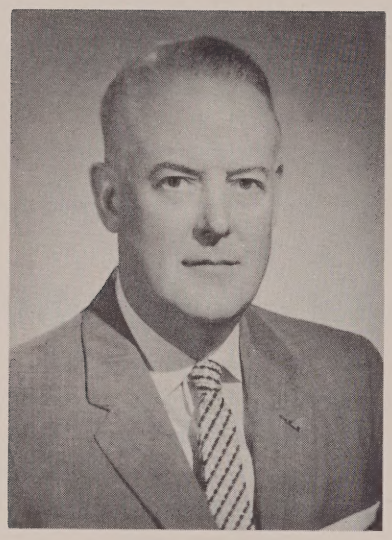
The Essence



DR. WILFRED O'LEARY
Latin Head Master

Loyalty and enthusiasm have always characterized the students, faculty, and alumni of Boston Latin School and English High School. Throughout their long and brilliant histories each school has developed a tradition of scholastic excellence, good sportsmanship, and school spirit which is unrivaled beyond Avenue Louis Pasteur. It is this spirit, this devotion to excellence which makes peaceful co-existence between the schools impossible; and which makes friendly rivalry our way of life. This friendly rivalry has culminated in the supreme tradition, the Latin-English Thanksgiving Day football game.

Each year the lens of tradition focuses a year's worth of school spirit into an hour long cheer of praise. The Thanksgiving Day game's value lies not in its tradition but in the school wide enthusiasm which grips each of the participating schools on the eve of the Classic. This same enthusiasm was there on the eve of the first game, and the eighty-first game, and it will still be there on the eve of the one hundred and first game. As old Grads and Freshmen yell themselves hoarse in appreciation # of Competition

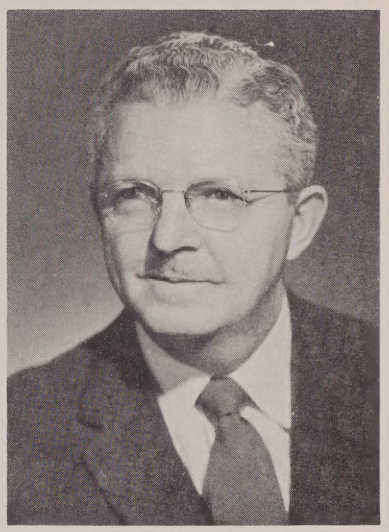
it is easy for an outsider to assume that this might be an annual outburst and nothing more; but this is a spirit and devotion which is always with Latin and English teams, no matter what the sport, no matter who the opposition, win, lose or draw.

The training, the physical conditioning and the good sportsmanship which the young men of both teams will display today is to a great extent due to the talent and dedication of their coaches. As they do every year coaches Howard Smith of Latin and William Stewart of English have fielded teams which are a credit to their schools both on and off the field.



DR. JOSEPH L. MALONE
English Head Master

To me, as to all Seniors on both sides of the avenue, this year's game is one of the most important events of the Senior year. Each year the game aquires a new and deeper meaning. It seems as though when the class of '68 take their seats on both sides of the stadium, they will be saying their last public "Thank You" to the two great schools which trained them so well and to the athletes and coaches which made our football season an interesting one.

A Little Better

A little better skill in posing, a little better likeness and Boston's foremost imprint—and you have a much better photograph, much more satisfaction and far wider approval of results. Then we add beautiful covers and scrupulous care in details of packing and, mark it — we deliver on time. No detail escapes our interested care.

In Appreciation of Your Numerous Years of Service

JOSEPH L. KENNEY

This year marks the retirement of Mr. Joseph L. Kenney of the History Department. After receiving an A.B. Degree from Holy Cross in 1919, Mr. Kenney taught in the following New York schools:

Iona Prep — New Rochelle
St. John's College — Brooklyn

After teaching for a time at the Newman School in Lakewood, N. J., Mr. Kenney returned to Boston where he earned his ED.M. from Harvard University in 1928.

Appointed to the English High School faculty in January, 1934, Mr. Kenney, on his retirement, will have completed forty-three (43) years of teaching.

He coached baseball, football, basketball, and boxing in New York Schools; a former member of the N. Y. State Umpires Assn., Central Board of Football Officials; Eastern Mass. Assn. of Approved Basketball Officials.

He was instrumental in making basketball a major sport in Eastern Canadian Colleges.

The "Kenney Basketball Award" is given annually at St. Francis Xavier University in Nova Scotia in his name.

Best Wishes From

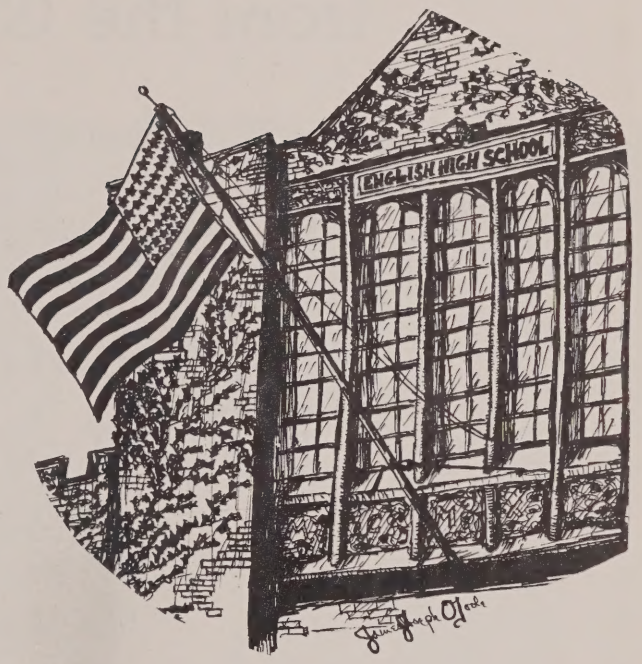
ENGLISH HIGH SCHOOL ALMA MATER

Alma Mater tried and true
English High, our English High;
Oft our hearts shall turn to you,
English High, our English High;
Should e'er the laurel wreath be mine,
I'll lay the honor at thy shrine,
Our hearts, our hopes, our prayers are thine,
English High, our English High.



The Blue has class out on the field.
The team is all the rave
We know we'll win,
It will be a sin
To dig those Latin graves.

Mr. Creedon and the Seniors of 217
Wish the Team the Best of Luck

Glancing at the Record

70 YEARS AGO 11th Game fo the Series 1897 . . . South End Grounds . . . EHS 44 BLS 6 . . . Football in the "mud and slush" . . . This is the theme song of many a Thanksgiving Day Game . . . As usual, for those days, account of game on front pages . . . The purple saved from whitewash by Breed's run of 110 yards (this 110 is no misprint) . . . It was the Blue's ball on the Purple's two . . . Teeven's, EHS back, started into the line with the ball . . . A huge pile-up . . . Out of the pile — with the ball — came Breed (L) and ran the length of the field . . . Adherents of the Blue and Blue had painted the goal posts those colors . . . In the 90's they didn't tear down goal posts — they painted them . . . Since 1893 a single touchdown had decided the games . . . This day EHS avenged the 1888 beating of 38-0 they had taken . . . Carey, Moran, and Kelley carried the load for the Purple . . . In a galaxy of Blue and Blue stars, Skip Sherlock stood out.

60 YEARS AGO 21st Game of the Series Locust Street Grounds . . . EHS 5 BLS 0 . . . "The scene which greeted the eye of the visitor as he entered the gate made his blood thrill and his heart leap for joy. All around the field were the thousands of people; the stands, brilliant with waving banners and the many-colored garments of the enthusiastic spectators; the field itself, marked and crossed with white lines; the footballs flying high in the air; the players, all in uniform; the officials, hustling and bustling about; and the newspaper reporters, with their cameras. As this view met the sight, one was glad to be living, and the question arose whether the ancients, with all their games and jousts and tournaments, ever looked upon a prettier sight.

Suddenly, all was changed. The footballs ceased to fly, the officials ranged themselves on opposite sides of the field, the cheering of the "rooters" grew still, the stands were quiet, the players grouped around their respective coaches for one last word of advice; then the captains met in the middle of the field, the coin was tossed, the players spread about the field in their different positions and every one held his breath, for the game was about to begin. As the players waited there, every nerve and muscle quivering with excitement, the teams seemed well matched. The referee's whistle blew, the ball was kicked high in the air, and the game was on." . . . (Rather than an account of the game we thought you would enjoy how football was written then.)

35 YEARS AGO 46th Game of the Series 1932 . . . Fenway Park . . . 18000 look on as BLS wins 18-7 . . . A secret weapon was unveiled by Coach Charley FitzGerald in Buddy McLaughlin, a sophomore . . . On two occasions McLaughlin ran for 35 yards . . . grabbed a pass from Downes for a TD . . . grabbed a lateral for another . . . Capt. Bill Timmins, Battles, Cooper, Agrillo, and Sweeney carried the Blue and Blue banner to the fray . . . Capt. Gavin (L) starred in the line for the Purple . . . Downes' passing noteworthy . . . Ike Sheehan (L) called a fine game at quarterback . . . used the "no signal" play well . . . But — as one writer put it — "McLaughlin's running was just too much."

30 YEARS AGO 51st Game of the Series 1937 . . . Braves Field . . . A scoreless tie . . . 20,000 saw the seventh scoreless tie in the series . . . NEWS: a beautiful day . . . Five times the Purple threatened and five times the wearers of the Blue turned them back . . . Latin messed up its chances . . . 130 pound Dempsey (L) often required three English players to bring him down . . . Both teams made seeral fine plays . . . but all for Nought and Nought . . . Blue stars: Halloran, O'Brien, Reale, Gillis, and Capt. Cuddy . . . Purple Stars: Martin, Crowley, Radley, Hoar, Lambert, Walsh.

25 YEARS AGO 56th Game of the Series 1942 . . . EHS wins 19-0 and wins City Title as well . . . After a slow first half (Gill scored for the blue) the 13,000 fans were delighted as they shivered and shook trying to identify the two players scoring the Blue second half TD's . . . The players were mud-covered after two plays . . . Gill, Kasabian, and Gilbert scored for the winners . . . Kasabian's 65 yard run for a touchdown was a thing of beauty . . . Gould, Noonan, and Wally Harwood stood out for the Purple . . . The mud on the field was at least three inches thick . . . It was difficult to tell which team had the ball . . . McMahon (E) and Rossi (E) did fine work in the EHS line . . . Year before, same score, but the Purple won then . . . The final touchdown came as Kasabian, about to be tackled after an eight yard gain, lateralled to Gilbert who ran 22 yards more to score.

15 YEARS AGO 66th Game of the Series 1952 . . . BLS 30 — EHS 12 . . . Harvard Stadium . . . Game TV-ed, kept attendance down to 14,000 . . . "despite its free-wheeling might Latin had to cash in in the last period of this hat-hoister to win" . . . Story of the game is in the scoring: Arena (L) 80 yards with opening kick-off for TD . . . Hadge and Burke (E) collaborated for TD . . . Carey (E) to Burke with a 39 yard pass, then Burke scored on a pitchout . . . At half-time: EHS 12 — BLS 6 . . . Then Connolly (L) 55 yards to equalize . . . then Connolly 22 yards . . . then Dailey (L) intercepted Carey's pass for 24 points total . . . then Smith (L) recovered fumble on EHS six and Capt. Kannegieser went over for the last TD . . . Not one point after touchdown was kicked after the seven TD's . . . "Latin ate up the ground in large gobs, but fumble-itis took over, or penalties prevented scores" . . . Example: Fitzgerald took hand-off on a punt and went 80 yards only to have the officials call clipping on the Purple back on the 48 . . . Another: Hasiotis to Dickey pass for 40 yards, then on the next line play — fumble . . . Stars for the Blue: Hadge, Burke, Carey and Kinneally. Stars for the Purple! Capt. Kannegieser and the whole team -- when not fumbling.

10 YEARS AGO 71st Game of the Series November 28, 1957 . . . EHS 26 — BLS 20 . . . At Harvard Stadium . . . Cloudy and windy at start, but sunny for second half, 55 degree temperature . . . BLS started off with a bang, scoring twice and leading 13 to 0 at the end of seven minutes . . . Brenci, on a double reverse, ran 28 yards for a TD . . . Bart Blanchard, aided by a terrific block by Art Tacelli, ran 58 yards down the left side for the longest run of the game . . . After that, Randy Mullins took over for EHS . . . He surprised all in second period in setting up a score, by passing to Kennedy on the 12 — then again to the 2 . . . Then, with BLS over-shifted to stop Randy, Sullivan went through and McGaffigan kicked the point . . . Within three minutes Monaco grabbed a BLS fumble on the 27 . . . Two plays and Randy outraced the secondary for his first T.D., and McGaffigan again kicked the point. Score now EHS 14; BLS 13 . . . In the third period Mullins had to go three times to get his second touchdown . . . His first jaunt of 30 yards was nullified by an offside. His second, on a Statue of Liberty play for 40 yards, was called back for a clip. Finally, he ran around the left end unimpeded . . . Early in the last period he caught a pass from Serra on the 7 and hotfooted home . . . BLS was not finished . . . A pass from Bilodeau to Phil Murray in the end zone was recalled for an offside. On the next try the play worked and Bilodeau kicked the point . . . With about two minutes to go, EHS got the ball. Mullins and Serra concentrated on line bucks to kill the clock.

5 YEARS AGO 76th Game of the Series Sunday, Nov. 25, 1962 at White Stadium . . . EHS 32, BLS 6 . . . Overflow attendance of nearly 12,000. For the second successive year English defeated Latin School and won the City Championship. In 1954 the Thanksgiving Day game was postponed until the following Saturday, while last year's game was postponed until Sunday, this being only twice in over 70 years that these two rivals were unable to play on the holiday.

In the first half Latin School made only one first down and gained only two yards in rushing and five yards in passing. English had a well balanced backfield of Hickman, Johnson, and Marks, and a staunch defense that blasted Latin School. Ben Marks scored twice and gained 83 yards in 16 rushes, while Preston Johnson scored once and gained 85 yards in 18 rushes. However, the best executed play of the game was in the last five minutes when Bob Allen, from the 41-yard line on a draw play, ran straight ahead unmolested into the end zone for Latin's only score. English scored six points in the first and third periods and twelve in the second and eight in the last period.

LAST YEAR 80th Game of the Series 1966 . . . Harvard Stadium . . . EHS 20 — BLS 18 After two years of frustration, EHS quarterback Mike Thomas finally led his team to a victory over the Latin School — but not before they all received the scare of their young lives.

This game was somewhat similar to the 1957 game when BLS exploded for an early lead and EHS came back to win. The main difference between the two being that last year's Blue and Blue squad was so heavily favored to run the Purple right into the Charles River. So that when Latin School backs Scott Guild and Frank Mucci scored first period touchdowns to give BLS a 12-0 lead, the record crowd of 25 000 was more than a little bit shocked.

The second period, however, was all English. Thomas went over from the two for the first Blue TD. Ricci scored from the six, and, late in the period, Tom Cassidy gathered in a Thomas pass on the L 45 and sprinted into the end zone for English's last TD. The Purple went 80 yards in 7 plays in the third period for its last score. Highlights of the march being a 23-yard pass to tackle-eligible Capt. Ed Holland, and Lincoln Pope's phenomenal 25 yard run for the score. Pope's attempt for a 2 point conversion was thwarted by Bill MacDonald, of English, and there ended the scoring.

The game wasn't decided, however, until the waning moments of the contest when a BLS fumble ended its last scoring threat.

Stars for the Blue: Mike Thomas and the MacDonalds; for the Purple: Holland, Costello, and Pope.
